

Preparations for the charity ball to be given Tuesday evening have been most extensive, and only the decorating of the big new hall remains to be done. Mrs. A. J. Gorham, president of the Hospital Aid society, will receive the guests, with Miss Jane Howat, the secretary. With them will be associated the members of the executive committee and the chairmen of the various other committees. The supper, which has always been a feature, and which has always been in the hands of Mrs. Edwin Kimball and Mrs. Samuel Paul, is again in their charge, and will be better than ever.

The senior and junior classes of the hospital training school are to be the especial guests of the association, and it is expected that they will be quite an attractive feature in their uniforms. A punch bowl will be placed in one corner, and here Mrs. Grant Smith and Mrs. F. S. Bascom will preside, while assisting them in turns will be the Misses Bess and Mildred McMillan, the Misses Rue and Olive Barthel, Miss Mary Copley, Miss Eleanor Stewart, Miss Winnifred Brice, Miss Mamie Sappington and Miss Louise Putnam.

Mrs. Jack Reeves, with a company of assistants, will be on hand tomorrow and Tuesday at the Smith drug store to supply tickets to those who have not yet secured them. The street car company has very kindly extended the time of the last car till 1:30. Indeed, every arrangement for the comfort and pleasure of the patrons has been completed, and the big ball bids fair to be the most successful so far.

The various committees are: Executive Committee—Mrs. F. S. Bascom, Mrs. W. V. Rice, Mrs. Russell L. Tracy, Mrs. Sol Siegel.

Supper Committee—Mrs. Edwin Kimball and Mrs. Samuel Paul.

Music Committee—Mrs. George Y. Wallace.

Decorating Committee—Mrs. C. R. Pearsall, Mrs. W. M. Ferry, Mrs. R. C. Gemmell, Mrs. M. H. Kriebel.

Ticket Committee—Mrs. Grant Smith and Mrs. J. A. Reeves.

The mixed foursomes at the Country club yesterday drew the biggest turnout seen there for some time. Eight couples entered for play, and the winners were Mr. and Mrs. F. E. McGurkin and E. W. Packard and Mrs. Robert C. Gemmell. These four will play the match out some time during the week—probably tomorrow. Numerous little parties enjoyed tea in the sitting room before the big grate fire, and many of the younger set enjoyed a few games of tennis during the sunny hours of the afternoon. The line was gay with the players, and altogether the place presented a very lifelike appearance.

Mrs. Morris L. Ritchie entertained a few friends at a tea yesterday afternoon at her home. Mrs. George M. Bacon and Mrs. Henry La Motte poured in the dining room, and assisting them were Miss Florence Ware and Miss Romola King. Receiving with the hostess were Mrs. Edward Merrill, Mrs. D. Elliott Kelly and Mrs. Glen Miller. The house was bright with chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Abbotline Barnes entertained at a beautifully appointed luncheon at her home Thursday afternoon, in honor of Mrs. Sarah Greening, who has recently returned from Spokane, and Mrs. Adam Paul of La Grande, Ore. The house was decorated in pink and white chrysanthemums and sweet peas. Eighteen ladies were present.

Mrs. Clayton I. Thatcher and her sister, Miss Della Hines, entertained a score of friends yesterday at a cup and saucer shower for Miss Lillian James, who will be one of the November brides. The game of hearts was played and prizes awarded the winners.

Dr. H. N. Mayo will be home today from St. Louis, where he was called by the death of his father. Dr. Mayo will be accompanied by his mother.

Mrs. Leonard C. Robinson was the hostess at an enjoyable supper party Friday evening at her home in the Covey flats. The affair was in honor of Inez Macaulay, who appeared at the Orpheum last week. The dining room was tastefully decorated with cut flowers and autumn leaves.

Mrs. George Hahn and Miss Jeanette Darns entertained ten friends at a dinner Friday evening for their mother, Mrs. J. Darns. The decorations were in yellow chrysanthemums.

Women's Clubs.

The Friday meeting of the Ladies' Literary club was given over to the study of the American Indian, or to the primitive people inhabiting this land before the present time. Don Maguire of Ogden gave a most entertaining though informal talk on "Archaeological Research in Utah." Mr. Maguire extended the talk given at Ogden, relating many interesting incidents in regard to his trips through the ruins of the southern portion of the state.

Mrs. Marcy followed with a cleverly prepared and well presented paper on "The First American," making her subject interesting from a personal standpoint by the recounting of her own experiences while living near Haskell institute.

Delightful music was furnished, Miss Edna Bailey singing three exquisite ballads, and later playing three equally beautiful piano numbers. Miss Roumania Hyde, a pupil of George E. Skelton, played a violin solo, Mrs. Skelton furnishing the accompaniment. Mrs. Florence K. Woodruff read a brief report of the federation meeting in Ogden.

The Daughters of the Utah Pioneers held a meeting Wednesday last in the relic room at the Idaho house, and heard papers read by Mrs. Merrill and Mrs. Whitney. Mrs. Susa Y. Gates gave an account of her visit to Logan, at which she organized a branch of the society. Mrs. Zina Y. Card spoke briefly on the value of the relic collection, and urged the members to bring their relics out and place them on exhibition. The next meeting will be held Wednesday, Nov. 20.

P. N. Cook has issued invitations for a piano recital to be given tomorrow evening at the Ladies' Literary club. A number of the pupils will take part, among them being Lillian Phelps, June Farnsworth, Nora Hadry, Florence Wiscomb, Nora Wiscomb, Alfred Ruhl, Inez Bull, Ivy Van Cott and Mr. Ruhl. Mrs. Cook will assist with some vocal numbers.

The history section of the Ladies' Literary club will meet Thursday morning next, and Mrs. J. J. Buswell will give the topic, "Decemvirs of Civil Equality of the Romans." All club members, including those not in the section, are invited.

The regular meeting of the Woman's Athenaeum was held Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Diem. Mrs. C. M. Wilson was the leader of the lesson, and Mrs. Lecompte and Mrs. Julius Frankel both had readings from Dickens' "Old Curiosity Shop." Miss Julia Burlin, treasurer of the club, gave a report at this meeting, as did also Mrs. E. J. Bezegs, delegate to the meeting of the Federation of Women's clubs held in Ogden. After the regular work for the day had been disposed of, Miss Mary Shields entertained the ladies with an instrumental selection. The next meeting will be held Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Dan B. Shields.

What Newbro's Herpicide

has done for others it may do for you

"Enclosed you will find a recent photograph of myself, showing the growth of my hair since beginning the use of your Herpicide. Before using Herpicide, the top of my head was completely bald, but the use of only two bottles has brought a new growth of hair. I had spent between $20 and $50 on other remedies, but failed to derive any benefit until using your Herpicide. I cannot commend this remedy too highly to any with dandruff, baldness or falling hair."

(Signed) CLARENCE HAMILTON.

Atlanta police department, Atlanta, Georgia.

While chronic baldness is incurable, many cases of primary or incipient baldness have been completely cured with Newbro's Herpicide, the original remedy that "kills the dandruff germ." Of course, the rational plan is to save, but even after it is gone there is a "fighting chance" if the hair follicles are not atrophied. Herpicide stops itching of the scalp instantly.

Two sizes, 50c and $1.00, at Drug Stores. Send 10c in stamps to the Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich., for a sample. Guaranteed under the Food and Drug Act, June 30, 1906. Serial No. 915.

The Wasatch Literary club, with a number of guests, were entertained by Mrs. Rodgers and Mrs. Gorline at the home of Mrs. Rodgers. Mrs. Hauzburst, the delegate to the State Federation of Women's clubs, gave a comprehensive report of the meetings.

Two excellent papers on the subject of "Pure Food" were given by Mrs. Hamlin and Mrs. J. J. Thomas. The discussion that followed was led by Mrs. Scarles. The program closed with an instrumental solo by Mrs. Hays.

Mrs. U. G. Moser of 206 East Third South street will be the hostess for the Woman's club on Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Gertrude Welch will give her paper on "Public Parks and Play Grounds." Mrs. P. N. Cook will give some suggestions on needed reforms along the line of the state's responsibility to the child.

The current events and current literature section of the Ladies' Literary club will meet Friday afternoon. Mrs. Charles W. Watson will give a review of the life and works of St. Gaudens. Mrs. Edwards will play, and Miss Ora Rogers will sing.

The regular monthly meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Temple B'nai Israel will be held on Tuesday at 2:30 p. m. at the B. B. rooms.

The Daughters of the Mormon Battalion will meet Tuesday, Nov. 12, at 3 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Hattie Pickett, 151 Fourth avenue.

MAKE YOUR OWN MEDICINE

Costs Less and You Know What You Are Taking.

Fifty years ago there were very few patent medicines on the market; our grandparents used to buy the simple drugs, take them home and mix them themselves. Then they knew just what they were taking; then, too, it cost a great deal less. For instance, in the average dollar bottle of patent medicine there are about 24 to 30 doses, while you get from $9 to 100 when you mix the ingredients yourself.

Here is a simple mixture for stomachic troubles, that you can mix yourself, and you will get more doses than you'll get in two ordinary bottles of patent medicines. Then, too, you know what you are taking.

Here it is. Try it: Compound Tincture of Cinchona, one ounce; Froese Compound, one ounce; Sherry Wine, half a pint. Mix together and take a teaspoonful before meals and at bedtime in water.
